ITINERARY

WEDNESDAY Arrive in Philadelphia with transfers to the Sofitel Philadelphia (120 S17th Street). Welcome cocktail reception at the hotel.

THURSDAY Guided walking tour of the Historic District including the president's house, Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, Curtis Center, Franklin Court, Betsy Ross House, Elfreth's Alley and Christ Church. The afternoon is free to visit the new Museum of the American Revolution, Reading Market or for shopping.

FRIDAY Trip to the Brandywine Valley including the Brandywine River Museum with the collection of Howard Pyle and N.C. Wyeth and the Andrew Wyeth studio. After a lunch at the museum, we will travel to Longwood Gardens—a world renowned garden.

SATURDAY A short walk to the Barnes Foundation including a tour of the collection with time to wander. The afternoon will be spent at the Italian market—an iconic street market that dates back to the early 1900s—for a food tour.

SUNDAY A short walk to the Rodin Museum followed by a visit to the Philadelphia Museum of Art including a tour and time to explore. The afternoon will be free to stay at the Philadelphia Museum of Art, visit other museums or free time. The day will end with a group dinner.

MONDAY After breakfast and goodbyes, departure will be at your leisure with transfers back to the Philadelphia airport or your next destination. Possible extensions could include a visit to Valley Forge or a short trip on Amtrak to Washington DC or New York City.

To participate in this exclusive trip with the Foundation's Executive Director, Emily Blaugrund Fox, registration and a $500 deposit per person is required by June 30. Final payment due July 25, 2017. The trip is based on a minimum of 20 participants. If the minimum is not achieved, the full amount that was paid will be refunded. Contact All World Travel for your airfare arrangements.
